

Speakers

English Version

CITES Representative

Carlos Salinas
ACTO Director

Natalia Méndez
Ruiz-Tagle
ACTO Consultant

Mauro Ruffino
Bioamazon Project/
ARO Coordinator

João Pessoa
Moreira
Ibama Brazil

Daniel Wolf
BfN

Phillip Da Silva
WSC Guyana

Carliz Díaz
MINEC

ACTO AT CITES CoP 19

Side Event of ACTO
Implementation and achievements of the Amazon Regional Observatory

Find out more

Nov 24th
2022

12:15-14:00

Caribe 7
Panama
Convention
Center

Agenda

Segment 1

Time	Activity
12:15-12:25	Carlos Salinas, ACTO Director Opening and welcome to the CITES authorities, panelists, ACTO Member Countries and participants in general.
12:25-12:35	CITES Representative Speech on the ACTO Amazon Regional Observatory and its contribution to CITES.
12:35-12:50	Mauro Luis Ruffino, Bioamazon Project/Amazon Regional Observatory Coordinator Main activities carried out, results achieved in the Amazon Region and new challenges to face.
12:50-1:05	Natalia Méndez Ruiz-Tagle, ACTO consultant for the topic of illegal trafficking of CITES species Main results of the consultancy for the Technical Report Illegal Trafficking of Five Emblematic CITES Appendix I Species for the Amazon Region.  Launch of the Technical Report Illegal Trafficking of Five Emblematic CITES Appendix I Species for the Amazon Region

Segment 2

Time	Activity
13:05-13:12	João Pessoa Moreira, Director of Sustainable Use of Biodiversity and Forests, Brazilian Institute of Environment and Renewable Natural Resources (Ibama Brazil) Progress and successful experiences of the ACTO Member Country in the implementation of CITES in Brazil within the framework of the ACTO Bioamazon Project and the Amazon Regional Observatory.
13:12-13:19	Phillip Da Silva, Chairman of the Wildlife Scientific Committee (WSC) of Guyana Progress and successful experiences of the ACTO Member Country in the implementation of CITES in Guyana within the framework of the ACTO Bioamazon Project and the Amazon Regional Observatory.
13:19-13:26	Carliz Díaz, General Director of Biological Diversity, Ministry of Popular Power for Ecosocialism (MINEC) Progress and successful experiences of the ACTO Member Country in the implementation of CITES in Venezuela within the framework of the ACTO Bioamazon Project and the Amazon Regional Observatory.
13:26-13:31	Daniel Wolf, Federal Agency for Nature Conservation Relevance of the information available through the Amazon Regional Observatory for the formulation of NDFs using the 9-step methodology
13:31-13:41	KfW Presentation on the importance of international cooperation in the implementation of CITES and perspectives
13:41-13:50	Public Participation Questions and answers session
13:50-14:00	Closure and Coffee Break

Segment 3